

Don't breed, raise, feed or keep stock on the opposition that the present superabundant supply is soon to run out, and then there will be no disappointment.

If there be more mutton-heads than are needed in the country, the result of oblige heads seems to be short. A Canadian steamer arriving at New York recently, brought over 427 packages.

It is bad enough to pay for coffee and get coffee, but now our consul at Stettin reports to the State Department that of the German chitry sent to this country, two-thirds are burnt out.

Corn has touched the lowest price received since 1863. Corn is now selling at or near 29 cents a bushel in Chicago, 39 in New York, and 41½ in Boston. The warm weather, many corn was injured by heat in the barns. Farmers will do well heating in the barns.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad officials at Ottawa state that there is a great movement of east bound American freight over the road, and that the company has received orders to supply 10,000 cars. The bulk of the shipments consists of export grain, which are loaded at Boston.

From the Secretary-Treasurer of the West Peabody Agricultural Society, F. B. Hartshorne, Hinsdale, we receive his annual report, with list of men, members and officers, list of awards for 1889, all arranged in the methodical order in which this veteran office transacts and records his business.

A pair of twenty-seven hundred pound cattle at six cents a pound, dressed weight, is a deal of good beef for us. But the fact is, that is what we have to offer. The subject is well urged and carried forward, will insure increased prosperity and greater happiness.

Mr. Stetson—The children need to be taught these principles, and to know how to judge what are friends and what are enemies in insect life, and how each should be treated.

On motion of Mr. Leland of Franklin County, the following resolution was given a passage:

Resolved, That it is the belief of the Society of Agriculture, that the principles of agriculture should be introduced and taught in our common schools, as soon as there is an urgent call for unity of action and concentration of effort, and that we are to be greatly pleased to do our best to secure this resolution.

Those who entertain the idea that the supply of country schoolmen has already begun to show signs of running short, will do well to read these figures of the Chicago stock transactions for the last year. The Drovers' Journal of Chicago, gives the total receipts of cattle in Union Stock Yards for the year 1889, as follows: 3,023,381 cattle, 123,965 sheep, 1,834,469 sheep, 5,995,536 hogs, and 79,926 horses; correspondingly, for 1888, were: 2,611,542 cattle, 96,886 calves, 1,156,614 sheep, 4,921,713 hogs, and 65,833 horses.

Five lines of reading are carefully gathered by an expert reader, and for the benefit of the reading public, may be admitted to any person who is willing to pay for it.

Mr. Geo. M. COOMBES, the Lewiston architect, has been retained as architect of the new hospital for the insane to be built at Bangor.

A copy of the Farmer fell into the hands of a gentleman in New Jersey, and he liked it so well that he immediately sent two dollars for a year's subscription.

Mr. Richard C. CALDWELL, formerly of the Advertiser, is now writing a new biography of his father, pen on the Advertiser, at Marshall, Miss. Richard has written a book on the Advertiser, and now owns one of the most prosperous newspaper plants in the West.

For the last month of 1889, there were brought out from the shores of Northern Aroostook, and cleared from the port of Fort Fairfield, the following cars of freight, viz.: Potatoes, $80; shingles, 600; starch, 146; hay, 99; lumber, 69; sheep, 34; cattle, 13; horses, 11; bark, 13; clapboards, 4; barrels, 20; telegraph, 5; straw; 1; barrels, 1; tools, 200; cars, 1.

The editor of this array of figures, the Aroostook Republican, pertinently asks the question, "Does anyone pretend that a railroad to Aroostook will not pay?"

At the annual meeting of the Oxford County Horse Breeders' Association, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: H. L. Ford, Norway, President, in place of Geo. W. Wood, who resigned; Geo. W. Wood, of Norway, Vice-President; William J. Wheeler of Paris, Thomas Emery of Harrison, F. E. Mansou of Oxford, and Geo. A. Brooks of Norway, Executive Committee. William H. Strickland of Bangor, was elected as representative to the State Association at the meeting. The National Association will be held at Buffalo next month. The association is in excellent financial condition.

The crying evil of our times at present is that so much property escapes taxation. If the assessors could find everything, and would tax it justly and equally when found, nobody could complain of burdensome taxation. It is, of course, property which is taxed, and the more property which is taxed, the more revenue there is for the support of the State. The Association will be called to the attention of the people, does not seem to answer to the purpose. It is wonderful how men, honest in all other matters, feel perfectly justified in concealing their taxable property.

The State must have to do with the amount of property which is taxed.

One of the fairest men who has been before the valuation commission is Mr. Oscar Clark, the lumber king of Somerset County. He admitted that much timber land owned by him was not taxed to its full value, and that he was not taxed to its full value. The figure of the valuation imposed by the State, it is a fact, while wild lands have more than doubled in price, on account of the growing demand for timber, and all kinds of lumber, has remained the same. The law, all these years has been earnestly trying to find a way to correct this. The present commission will do it to that this grievous wrong is righted, and that those wealthy gentlemen who have grown rich by issuing permits to cut timber on their lands, shall bear a fair proportion of the burden, will fall when it belongs.
